The new scale in the west seems to be generally accepted, and work under it is moving without much friction and with apparent satisfaction on the part of manufacturers and workmen. The western operatives seem to have the intelligence, the honesty, the honor and the loyalty to their Brotherhood to recognize the general good to the whole number and abide by their own agreements.

has given away for the present to a great activity in the local plants, made necessary by the great volume of business that is being done. No presidential year in the history of the pottery industry here has seen such a good trade, and the outlook is that all hands will be kept going full blast till the holiday season rolls around.

Just what will become of the scale question eventually is problematical. There are those among both the manufacturers and men who lean to the belief that the scale will ultimately go ACITATED into effect in Trenton. They argue that it is quite necessary to the future of the trade here.

KILLED A MAD

It Frightened a Lot of People In the Lower Part of Town.

THREE SHOTS WERE NECESSARY

A mad dog broke loose in the lower part of town last evening, and for a time there was quite an excitement.

The dog was the property of Mrs. Dora Hall, of Second street, and when first noticed it was acting in a strange manner, running about and snapping at any one who chanced to pass. Chief Thompson was notified and repaired to the scene prepared to make way with the animal. The first time an attempt was made to shoot the dog the chief missed his aim, as the canine was running, and the shot only served to anger him. He made at the officer who had no desire for a hand to hand encounter so retired. He killed the animal on Market street a short time afterward.

Mayor Davidson has issued an order notifying all people who are in the habit of leaving wagons and other obstructions standing in the street, that the practice will not be tolerated on next Monday. The order will be enforced to the letter. Chief Thompson is busy today notifying the parties what is expected of them.

the installation of the new wage scale

has given away for the present to a great activity in the local plants, made necessary by the great volume of business that is being done. No presidential year in the history of the pottery industry here has seen such a good trade, and the outlook is that all hands will be kept going full blast till the holiday season rolls around.

Just what will become of the scale question eventually is problematical. There are those among both the manufacturers and men who lean to the belief that the scale will ultimately go into effect in Trenton. They argue that it is quite necessary to the future of the trade here.

It Frightened a Lot of People In the Lower Part of Town.

THREE SHOTS WERE NECESSARY

A mad dog broke loose in the lower part of town last evening, and for a time there was quite an excitement.

The dog was the property of Mrs. Dora Hall, of Second street, and when first noticed it was acting in a strange manner, running about and snapping The funeral will be held at that at any one who chanced to pass. Chief Thompson was notified and repaired to the scene prepared to make way with the animal. The first time an attempt was made to shoot the dog the chief missed his aim, as the canine was running, and the shot only served to anger him. He made at the officer who had no desire for a hand to hand encounter so retired. He killed the animal on Market street a short time afterward.

is still focussed on India and the terrible famine there raging. Money for the relief of the starving millions is still pouring into the treasuries of the various relief committees. The Christian Herald, Bible House, New York, which is raising the largest fund of all for the distressed people, makes the gratifying report that all America, with unabating generosity, is still working for the fund, gathering money from every possible source. Every dollar sent in is promptly acknowledged in the pages of the Christian Herald.

Gilson Willets, the author and journalist, recently returned from a journey through the famine stricken region, was seen yesterday by a representative of this paper. Said he:

A NEW FACTORY

To Be Established in This Vicinity for the Manufacture of Automobiles.

The old car shops at Minerva that have stood idle for so many years are being torn down and shipped away. The Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad company has purchased the ground and will put in several tracks there and make a yard at that place. The citizens were loth to see the shops go, but there is a new movement on foot which promises to give quite a boom to the town.

Will Pennock, who was one of the proprietors of the car shops, has completed a model of an automobile which passed a very successful test. He is now engaged in building another at the "A. B. C." machine shops, and it is said that he and his partner, Arthur Hostetter, are soon to begin the erection of a fine new building for the purpose of manufacturing automobiles.

The citizens are all excited over the project and will assist in every way

FOR MOTHERS. The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Clarkson, Ark., July 20, 1899. After my baby was born I took the whites and falling of the womb, and was in a very dangerous condition. I read one of your home treatment books, and commenced to treat myself with Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught. I am thankful for what the medicine did for me, and I am now in better health than I have been for a long time. Mrs. MARGARET FORD. "About every 10 or 15 miles there was a relief camp or poor house. At the camp people were given work at four cents maximum wages a day, hardly enough at best for them to live on. In the poor houses people who were too weak to work, delicate women and little childen, were cared tor stintedly at government expense.

"I described these camps and poor houses fully in my letters to your paper from India, described in detail the spectacle of over six million people eating the two meals a day supplied by the government. There are other and many interesting things in connection with these camps, however. For instance, the starving people have to walk from 10 to 50 miles allow people who live in a certain village for instance, to enter the camp adjoining that village. If they are willing to walk a number of miles to get relief they are pretty certain to be genuine sufferers, and we thus get a minimum of imposters.

"In the relief camps people are seldom arrested. They are too busy or too tired to do wrong. Are the people ronest among themselves? Yes; for obvious reasons. They have nothing to steal from one another.

"In case of any wrong doing, however, no corporal punishment is inflicted upon the culprits. If such culprits are well enough they are dismissed. How do the workers entertain themselves on holidays and

A NEW FACTORY

To Be Established in This Vicinity for the Manufacture of Automobiles.

The old car shops at Minerva that have stood idle for so many years are being torn down and shipped away. The Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad company has purchased the ground and will put in several tracks there and make a yard at that place. The citizens were loth to see the shops go, but there is a new movement on foot which promises to give quite a boom to the town.

Will Pennock, who was one of the proprietors of the car shops, has completed a model of an automobile which passed a very successful test. He is now engaged in building another at the "A. B. C." machine shops, and it is said that he and his partner, Arthur Hostetter, are soon to begin the erection of a fine new building for the purpose of manufacturing automobiles.

The citizens are all excited over the project and will assist in every way possible.

FOR MOTHERS. The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering.

Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga,

Sundays and in the evenings? They sleep, principally. On Sundays the men go to the bazaar and buy grain for their maintenance during the coming week, and the women scour the desert in search of firewood. There is a minimum task at which work may stop. But the minimum wage is always given, whether the Gladden, the pastor will leave for task is finished or not. At some camps the workers are divided into gangs of 30, and that gang must have a '30-man task' finished by nightfall. If the task is finished they all get the maximum wage. If not finished they all get the minimum wage. And herein is one respect in which the famine code could be improved. For, in a gang of 30 men there are often one, or two, or three who are lazy, who shirk, who allow the others to do the most work. Therefore, when the '30man task' is not finished, the entire gang must suffer the penalty and be content with the minimum wage, all because of the sloth of a few. Would not the government do better to pay in grain at cost price, instead of money? No, because if grain were thus supplied, the government would enter into competition with the bunniahs, and hence would close up all the private grain dealers' shops. Is not the government completely reimbursed for its famine expense, you ask, by improvements in which camp work results? No-by no means, nofor it must be remembered that most ket and Jackson-Sunday services at of such work is performed by unskilled labor and has often to be done all over again when the famine has passed. The main object of the government is to give employment. If the work thus secured is satisfactory, so much the better.

"It seems incredible that so many millions of people can be starving at one time, that so many hundreds of thousands are dying, that such distress exists among the living. Bryan's backers and apologists term our soldiers in the Philippine islands pirates and murderers. Pity is that our brave boys now in Luzon cannot have a chance to practice at short range markmanship upon the said treacherous and disloyal lovers of Aguinaldo and his crew of assassins.

RATS.

When so-called unionists bid on work and then get that work done at an unfair office, where unfair prices rule, the so-called unionists are simply rats in disguise-infinitely below the nonunionists whom they profess to despise. ## LABOR DAY.

Next Monday promises to be a Red Letter Day in East Liverpool. The labor leaders and those in charge of affairs have acted with due discretion and good judgment, and the outlook is for a most flattering success. Delegations will be present from different points, and the street parade is expected to surpass any turnouts of a like character in the history of our city. Our merchants and business men have aided materially in making the matter a success, and the unionists of the city should bear this in mind.

THE SALOON.

It has become a stench in the nostrils of every clean and good citizen. The very word "saloon" bears with it the signficance of debauchery, dishonor, degradation, drunkenness, depravity, vileness, vice and crime of every description. The men engaged in these dens of iniquity are recognizing the fact that the word "saloon" bears shame and sorrow with it, and they are urging the adoption of the name "liquor store," and the dropping offer us; I've been satisfied that of the word "saloon." Please God, the day will come when the manufacture and sale of accursed intoxicants in this great nation will be declared illegal and unlawful, and the men who are now coining money out of the tears and means of widows and children will find no necessity of coining a new word for the hellish business in which they are engaged.

OUR VETERANS.

They can meet as a body for years to come, hold their camp fires, have with them their wives, children, grand children and other relatives, listen to addresses, indulge in good living and have a good time generally; but the long and wearisome marches must cease. One G. A. R. comrade dropped dead in line at Chicago; another comrade was taken very seriously ill and was compelled to leave the ranks and eventually had to be you want to win, and win good, you've carried to his quarters. ## WONDERFUL CHANGES.

Time works wonders. A few years since, General Daniel E. Sickles was Honest money against dishonest cur. have failed in passing an examination, doing splendid service for the cause THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE. street building.

General Joe Wheeler was doing equally valiant and heroic service for the confederacy; the two born soldiers were doing all they could possibly to annihilate and wipe from the face of the earth their common foe. On Tuesday last, at the Palmer House, Chicago, the writer had the pleasure of an introduction and a hand shake with General Sickles, and received as hearty a welcome as if he had worn the star of a brigadier general. A moment later, a mutual friend and acquaintance introduced the writer to General Joe Wheeler, and received from the doughty little warrior a genial, hearty welcome, with a hand clasp which seemed to say that the welcome given was from the heart as well as from the lips, and that it was made more hearty than usual in the fact of our being at Manila, as the friend in introducing us so informed the general. A moment later, the federal and confederate officers were chatting together like bosom friends, and this brought the thought up that time indeed works wonderful changes. General Joe Wheeler is a man well worth knowing and studying; light of build, small of stature, urbane and courteous to a marked degree, he presents the appearance of a successful commercial traveler or a retail business man. He would be one of the last men in the world that the average man would pick out as a warrior bold or one of heroic mould; and yet, like 'Bobs" Roberts, the great English commander, he is surely every inch a soldier. "THAT'S THE TALK."

of the union and waging hot and

bloody war against the confederacy.

He was one of a party of a crowded car of tourists, returning from the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago. He is a good talker, bright and breezy and chuck full of personal magnetism, and his talk attracted general attention. He wound up his talk to the G. A. R. boys as follows:

"Say, fellows, I'm a convert. I have seen the error of my way. I have been taught a lasting lesson. I'll not shirk or loaf any more. I'll be on deck when the ship comes in. I'm for McKinley and the present administration. The times are good enough for me and good enough for any man of business or common horse sense. I don't want to take any chances in a change, especially such a change as Billy Bryan and his crew of theorists we'll win a big victory in our state, say about 50,000 or 60,00 majority, and I'd about concluded it wasn't worth my while to lose a half day and go to the polis, as McKinley was sure of all our state electors. But I listened to a brainy and astute talker the other day and he convinced me that it was my bounden duty not only to vote myself, but to see that every McKinley voter in our neck of woods should be at the polls and cast his ballot, The day is fast approaching when and that I ought to go to work and down and interview them. Say, fellows, you'd have been astonished to find the number of those chums of mine who had been thinking and acting same as I had. But I stirred 'em up to the marrow bones, and don't you forget it; and they'll not only vote themselves, but I've made 'em missionaries, and each blessed man is now out hot foot after converts. It's the only way to do business, political or otherwise, and don't you forget it. If The boys broke loose when the

LABOR DAY.

Next Monday promises to be a Red Letter Day in East Liverpool. The labor leaders and those in charge of affairs have acted with due discretion and good judgment, and the outlook is for a most flattering success. Delegations will be present from different points, and the street parade is expected to surpass any turnouts of a like character in the history of our city. ## THE SALOON.

It has become a stench in the nostrils of every clean and good citizen. The very word "saloon" bears with it the signficance of debauchery, dishonor, degradation, drunkenness, depravity, vileness, vice and crime of every description. The men engaged in these dens of iniquity are recognizing the fact that the word "saloon' bears shame and sorrow with it, and they are urging the adoption of the name "liquor store," and the dropping of the word "saloon." Please God, the day will come when the manufacture and sale of accursed intoxicants in this great nation will be declared illegal and unlawful, and the men who are now coining money out of the tears and means of widows and children will find no necessity of coining a new word for the hellish business in which they are engaged.

OUR VETERANS.

The day is fast approaching when the Grand Army veterans will cease to march at their annual encampments. They can meet as a body for years to come, hold their camp fires, have with them their wives, children, grand children and other relatives, listen to addresses, indulge in good living and have a good time generally; but the long and wearisome marches must cease. One G. A. R. comrade dropped dead in line at Chicago; another comrade was taken very seriously ill and was compelled to leave the ranks and eventually had to be carried to his quarters. Very many men who marched over the entire route will suffer in consequence. One plucky veteran, with but one leg, made the complete route on crutches. It was very nervy on his part; but when the echo died away a fellow at it was also very foolish, as he could the south end of the car, with a voice have rode in a conveyance if he had like that of a full fledged African lion, so desired, and been made cosy and comfortable.

WONDERFUL CHANGES.

Time works wonders. A few years since, General Daniel E. Sickles was bloody war against the confederacy. General Joe Wheeler was doing equally valiant and heroic service for the confederacy; the two born soldiers were doing all they could possibly to annihilate and wipe from the face of the earth their common foe. On Tuesday last, at the Palmer House, Chicago, the writer had the pleasure of an introduction and a hand shake with General Sickles, and received as hearty a welcome as if he had worn the star of a brigadier general. A moment later, a mutual friend and acquaintance introduced the writer to General Joe Wheeler, and received from the doughty little warrior a genial, hearty welcome, with a hand clasp which seemed to say that the welcome given was from the heart as well as from the lips, and that it was made more hearty than usual in the fact of our being at Manila, as the friend in introducing us so informed the general. A moment later, the federal and confederate officers were chatting together like bosom friends, and this brought the thought up that time indeed works wonderful changes. General Joe Wheeler is a man well worth knowing and studying; light of build, small of stature, urbane and courteous to a marked degree, he presents the appearance of a successful commercial traveler or a retail business man. He would be one of the last men in the world that the average man would pick out as a warrior bold or one of heroic mould; and yet, like "Bobs" Roberts, the great English commander, he is surely every inch a soldier.

"THAT'S THE TALK."

He was one of a party of a crowded car of tourists, returning from the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago. He is a good talker, bright and breezy and chuck full of personal magnetism, and his talk attracted general attention. He wound up his talk to the G. A. R. boys as follows:

"Say, fellows, I'm a convert. I have seen the error of my way. I have been taught a lasting lesson. I'll not shirk or loaf any more. I'll be on deck when the ship comes in. I'm for McKinley and the present administration. The times are good enough for me and good enough for any man of business or common horse sense. I don't want to take any chances in a change, especially such a change as Billy Bryan and his crew of theorists offer us; I've been satisfied that we'll win a big victory in our state, say about 50,000 or 60,00 majority, and I'd about concluded it wasn't worth my while to lose a half day and go to the polis, as McKinley was sure of all our state electors. But I listened to a brainy and astute talker the other day and he convinced me that it was my bounden duty not only to vote myself, but to see that every McKinley voter in our neck of woods should be at the polls and cast his ballot and that I ought to go to work and mark name and address of the voters down and interview them. Say, fellows, you'd have been astonished to find the number of those chums of mine who had been thinking and acting same as I had. But I stirred 'em up to the marrow bones, and don't you forget it; and they'll not only vote themselves, but I've made 'em missionaries, and each blessed man is now out hot foot after converts. It's the only way to do business, political or otherwise, and don't you forget it. If you want to win, and win good, you've got to hustle from away back and let the other side do the loafin'."

The boys broke loose when the speaker ceased, and gave him three rousing cheers and a royal tiger; and money. Finder will be suitably roared out:

"That's the talk. Let her went for three more and a growler, boys." And they "let her went."

UNITED STATES LEADS Feins of emperor.

A Succession of Very Clever Diplomratic Moves.

AWAITING RESPONSE TO OUR NOTE.

Li Hung Chang's Eligibility to Negotiate Still an Open Question-It Is Thought the Imperial Rulers of China Will Soon Return and Assume Their Duties.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The Russian note relative to the withdrawal of Russia from China and the United States' Friday by the state department, after the cabinet had fully considered the expediency of so doing. The correspondence is unique in the history of diplomatic exchange. It may be said to illustrate a clever move by which the United States government has again assumed the lead in prescribing the policy of the powers respecting the Chinese trouble. This was acavailing itself of the Russian note to address to the powers an inquidy as can scarcely be avoided.

Various meanings may be placed upon the statements of the two principals to this correspondence. Thus, on the one hand, it may be noted that while Russia announces a purpose to withdraw her troops from China, still, as to the occupying force at Niu Chang, a condition is attached that almost negatives the proposition as to that point. Respecting our own attitude, It appears that, while believing the best course to pursue is to remain at Peking, our government is still willing to withdraw. Perhaps this means that if there is to be separate action by the powers in China, the United States proposes to deal with the situation with a free hand.

Our Proposition to Withdraw.

It may be noted, in connection with our withdrawal statement that, whereas Russia proposed to withdraw from China, our offer is to withdraw only from Peking. A significant fact in this connection is that General Chaffee. who is well advised of the situation. having several days ago been directed to prepare for just such an emergency as that precipitated by the Russian action, continues his preparations for wintering the American troops in China, Indeed, unless the men are afloat and out of the Pei Ho within the next six weeks, they are likely to remain in China perforce, being ice-

General Chaffee was further advised Friday of the developments in the situation, a compendious statement of the points in the Russo-American correspondence being cabled to him for his guidance. As bearing further on the prospects of the future, it may noted the war department officials state that the government has not considered the question of the evacuation of China.

Only Two Answers.

It scarcely is expected that even with the aid of the cables a complete accord can be reached upon this last proposition immediately. Up to the close of the official day only two communications had been received in consequence of our last note. One was from the the British foreign office, through the American embassy, stating that Lord Salisbury was absent from London, and merely promising consideration for the note. The German response was through Mr. Jackson, and was equally inconclusive, indicating a wish on the part of the German government for time to consider the proposition.

The officials here say that they are satisfied that Japan, at least, is fully in accord with our objects, as set out in the note, and rather expected an early answer from the government of of that country. France has not been heard from on this point, her last communication relating entirely to the matter of Li Hung Chang's status.

The full text of the French government's answer to Li Hung Chang's peace proposals of Aug. 19 and 21 has just been received here. It proves to be almost identical in language with the reply of the American government, which laid down as a preliminary to peace overtures that security in the Chinese capital and responsible government authority be established.

It has developed in the course of careful consideration which officials have given to Li Hung Chang's credentials, that they were issued by the empress dowager, and not by the emperor, Kwang Tsu. This may have september 9, 1855, when she took the reins of power from the hands of the

The Return of Prince Ching.

It involves also the issues between the empress dowager, who is anti-foreign, and the emperor, who is pro-foreign. Still a further consideration is the Russian sympathies entertained by the empress dowager, as against the British sympathies held by the emperor. Thus far, however, there has been no questioning of the credentials on any of the personal grounds mentioned, although they are forcible in shaping the action of the several

Although the exact whereabouts of Li Hung Chang continue to be in doubt. it is the understanding of diplomatic officials that he is now in continuous communication with the imperial household, and thus is enabled to convey to them the prospect of a return response thereto were made public to the Chinese capital. The expected return of Prince Ching to Peking is said to be a result of this communication between Earl Li and the imperial family, and to be the initial move of responsible authorities toward the cap-

There is reason to believe also that Earl Li is now in frequent telegraphic correspondence with European capitals, although Washington has not received a word from him since Aug. complished by the state department's 21, the date of the last appeal for peace. Some significar ce is attached to this, as indicating that Earl Li to their policies, an answer to which failing to get from Washington an acceptance of his overtures, turned to Europe, and more particularly to Rus-

> It was stated Friday, as an additional reason for American acceptance of Li Hung Chang, that his confidential secretary and adviser is an American, Mr.. Pethick, formerly of the American consular service at Tien Tsin, Mr. Pethick is known to have great influence with the viceroy, and, among the officials here, he is regarded as a man of exceptional ability and scrupulous integrity.

All Vessels From Glasgow to Stay In Quarantine Twelve Days.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The following cablegram was received by the marine hospital service:

"Glasgow, Aug. 31.-Local board of health declares Glasgow infected with plague. Eleven cases and one suspicious case in the hospital today."

New York, Sept. 1 .- Dr. A. H. Doty, health officer of the port of New York, said that hereafter all vessels from Glasgow to this port would be detained at Quarantine for a period, of 12 days from their embarkation. "This length of time," said Dr. Dety, "is the maximum period of incubation. As there are only two passenger lines plying between this port and Glasgow the work will be simplified.

Denmark has also quarantined against Glasgow.

POWERS ARE AT SEA

The Russo-American Move a Great Mystery to Them.

Count Von Buelow Thinks the Situation Is Grave-Law and Order Being Restored In Peking - Return of Prince found at the Tsung Li Yamen. Ching Is Regarded as a Good Omen.

London, Sept. 1.-In the absence of further news from China the papers native newspapers on the ground that Russo-American proposals, which, so detrimental to the maintenance of far as may be gathered from the representations of opinions in the various European capitals, are calculated to subject the unity of the allies to an exceedingly severe and dangerous test.

In Germany especially these proposals are so diametrically opposed to Emperor William's policy that they have produced something like consternation. As The Daily News editorially remarks, "Count von Waldersee was assuredly not sent to assist in restoring the empress dowager.'

It is recognized on all sides that Germany's decision is the pivot of the matter.. Emperor William intended by dispatching Count von Waldersee to have the master hand in the Chinese settlement. Russia has taken the wind out of that officer's sails, and is now posing as the friend and protector of China.

Vienna specials show that the Russo-American proposals have caused extreme annoyance there. It is believed that Austria-Hungary will follow in Germany's steps, but it is recognized in both Berlin and Vienna that the withdrawal of the United states and Russia from Peking would leave the other powers little option but to follow. London, Sept. 1.-General Rennekampf, according to the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail, captured Tsi Tsi Kar August 29. As he advanced the Chinese surrendered by hundreds.

The dispatch says that Governor General Grodekoff will soon remove the seat of the Amur government from Khabarovsk to Tsi Tsi Kar and Attendance, 1,500. will later transfer it to Charbin.

GERMAN GOVERMENT EMBARRASSED.

Von Bueelow Cannot Account For the Russo-American Understanding.

Berlin, Sept. 1.-The German government is considerably embarrassed by the joint proposition of the United States and Russia to withdraw from Peking and to recognize Li Hung Chang as an intermediary. It was wholly unexpected here that Russia Washington, Sept. 1.-The following would join the United States in such uation thus created so important as to compel him to abandon the vacation trip he was about to take.

Last evening the semi-official press expresses the views of the government in cautiousness. A foreign office official made the following statement on the subject:

"Germany has not yet answered Russia's request to withdraw from Peking. The other powers do not regard the military situation there as precarious. As far as Li Hung Chang is concerned, Germany is ready to acknewledge him as China's representative in peace negotiations if he show himself properly accredited: but as to this feature of the case nothing is as yet known here.

LAWLESS ELEMENT OVERAWED.

Prince Ching's Return to Peking-Gere many May Start a Holy War.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The most gratifying features of the Chinese situation are the announcement by Minister Conger that Prince Ching is expected to return to Peking and the apparent determination of Rusia to secure, if possible, the withdrawal of the allies from that city. The most alarming phase is the indication that the German people feel that they have a mission in China, a duty call to wage a holy war against the Chinese.

Prince Ching's retu!rn to Peking is taken to indicate a healthy reaction in sentiment. Ching is known as a friend of foreigners, and several times before the relief of Peking his death at the hands of the Boxer element was reported. That he can now return in safety means that the lawless element has been overawed, and that under the protection of the allied forces the pro-foreign faction is asserting itself.

IMPROVED CHURCH MUSIC.

Reform In Catholic Church Choirs-Oper. atic Airs Obnoxious.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The official confirmation of the appointment of Cardinal Steinhuber as prefect in Rome of the congregation of the Index was received here yesterday. The news is expected to cause a lively comment in clerical circles. It is understood that Cardinal Steinhuber ranks among the most radical members of the cardinalate at the vatican. He has decided views on the adoption of a better standard of church music than now prevails in this country.

With his appointment as head of this congregation will have direct control of the St. Cecelia society and other or. ganizations looking to the bettermen; of church music in the United States. The operatic airs which are now generally sung by the choirs here are obnox. ious, it is said, to the spirit of the Catholic church, which, for centuries, has recognized no other form of ecclesiastical music than the Gregorian chant. For certain reasons, however, greater latitude has been given to American choirs than to those of any other country, but now the authorities at Rome are determined to support vocieties like that of St. Cecilia, whose purpose is gradually to eliminate what is considered baneful music.

AWAITING RESPONSE TO OUR NOTE.

Li Hung Chang's Eligibility to Negotiate Still an Open Question-It Is Thought the Imperial Rulers of China Will Soon Return and Assume Their Duties.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The Russian sia from China and the United States' the cabinet had fully considered the expediency of so doing. The correspondence is unique in the history of diplomatic exchange. Perhaps this means that if there is to be separate action by the powers in China, the United States proposes to deal with the situation with a free hand.

Our Proposition to Withdraw.

It may be noted, in connection with our withdrawal statement that, whereas Russia proposed to withdraw from China, our offer is to withdraw only from Peking. A significant fact in this connection is that General Chaffee. who is well advised of the situation, having several days ago been directed to prepare for just such an emergency as that precipitated by the Russian action, continues his preparations for wintering the American troops in China. Indeed, unless the men are affoat and out of the Pei Ho within the next six weeks, they are likely to remain in China perforce, being ice-

It proves to be almost identical in language with the reply of the American government, which laid down as a preliminary to peace overtures that security in the Chinese capital and responsible government authority be established.

It has developed in the course of careful consideration which officials have given to Li Hung Chang's credentials, that they were issued by the empress dowager, and not by the emperor, Kwang Tsu. This may have seprember 9, 1855, when she took the reins of power from the hands of the

POWERS ARE AT SEA

The Russo-American Move a Great Mystery to Them.

TSI TSI KAR CAPTURED BY RUSSIA.

Count Von Buelow Thinks the Situation Is Grave-Law and Order Being Restored In Peking - Return of Prince Ching Is Regarded as a Good Omen.

London, Sept. 1.-In the absence of further news from China the papers are again filled with discussions of the Russo-American proposals, which, so detrimental to the maintenance of far as may be gathered from the rep- beace. resentations of opinions in the various European capitals, are calculated to subject the unity of the allies to an exceedingly severe and dangerous test.

In Germany especially these proposals are so diametrically opposed to Emperor William's policy that they have produced something like consternation. As The Daily News editorially remarks, "Count von Waldersee was assuredly not sent to assist in restoring the empress dowager."

It is recognized on all sides that Germany's decision is the pivot of the matter.. Emperor William intended by dispatching Count von Waldersee to have the master hand in the Chinese out of that officer's sails, and is now posing as the friend and protector of China.

Vienna specials show that the Russo-American proposals have caused extreme annoyance there. It is believed that Austria-Hungary will follow in Germany's steps, but it is recognized in both Berlin and Vienna that the withdrawal of the United states and Russia from Peking would leave the other powers little option but to follow.

London, Sept. 1.—General Rennekampf, according to the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail, captured Tsi Tsi Kar August 29. As he advanced the Chinese surrendered by hundreds.

The dispatch says that Governor General Grodekoff will soon remove the seat of the Amur government from Khabarovsk to Tsi Tsi Kar and will later transfer it to Charbin.

GERMAN GOVERMENT EMBARRASSED.

Von Bueelow Cannot Account For the Russo-American Understanding.

Berlin, Sept. 1.-The German government is considerably embarrassed by the joint proposition of the United States and Russia to withdraw from Peking and to recognize Li Hung Chang as an intermediary. It was wholly unexpected here that Russia would join the United States in such a step. Count von Buelow, the foreign minister, considers the new situation thus created so important as to engost; Katoll and Wood. Umpire, Dwyer. compel him to abandon the vacation Attendance, 2,500.

Last evening the semi-official press cial made the following statement on the subject:

"Germany has not yet answered Russia's request to withdraw from Peking. The other powers do not regard the military situation there as precarious. As far as Li Hung Chang is concerned, Germany is ready to acknewledge him as China's representative in peace negotiations if he show himself properly accredited; but as to this feature of the case nothing is as yet known here.

LAWLESS ELEMENT OVERAWED.

Prince Ching's Return to Peking-Germany May Start a Holy War.

Washington, Sept. 1.—The most gratifying features of the Chinese situation are the announcement by Minister Conger that Prince Ching is expected to return to Peking and the apparent determination of Rusia to secure, if possible, the withdrawal of the allies from that city. The most alarming phase is the indication that the German people feel that they have a mission in China, a duty call to wage a holy war against the Chinese.

Prince Ching's retu!rn to Peking is taken to indicate a healthy reaction in sentiment. Ching is known as a friend of foreigners, and several times before the relief of Peking his death at the hands of the Boxer element was reported. That he can now return in safety means that the lawless element has been overawed, and that under the protection of the allied forces the pro-foreign faction is asserting itself.

IMPROVED CHURCH MUSIC.

Reform In Catholic Church Choirs-Oper. atic Airs Obnoxious.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The official confirmation of the appointment of Cardinal Steinhuber as prefect in Rome of the congregation of the Index was received here yesterday. news is expected to cause a lively comment in clerical circles. It is understood that Cardinal Steinhuber ranks among the most radical members of the cardinalate at the vatican. He has decided views on the adoption of a better standard of church music than now prevails in this country.

With his appointment as head of this congregation will have direct control of the St. Cecelia society and other or. ganizations looking to the betterment of church music in the United States. The operatic airs which are now gener. ally sung by the choirs here are obnox. ious, it is said, to the spirit of the Catholic church, which, for centuries, has recognized no other form of ecclesiastical music than the Gregorian chant. For certain reasons, however, greater latitude has been given to American choirs than to those of any other country, but now the authorities at Rome are determined to support vocieties like that of St. Cecilia, whose purpose is gradually to eliminate what is considered baneful music.

Prince Ching's Return to Peking-Gere many May Start a Holy War.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The most gratifying features of the Chinese situation are the announcement by Minister Conger that Prince Ching is expected to return to Peking and the apparent determination of Rusia to secure, if possible, the withdrawal of the allies from that city. The most alarming phase is the indication that the German people feel that they have a mission in China, a duty call to wage a holy war against the Chinese.

Prince Ching's retu!rn to Peking is taken to indicate a healthy reaction in sentiment. Ching is known as a friend of foreigners, and several times before the relief of Peking his death at the hands of the Boxer element was reported. That he can now return in safety means that the lawless element has been overawed, and that under the protection of the allied forces the pro-foreign faction is asserting itself.

IMPROVED CHURCH MUSIC.

Reform In Catholic Church Choirs-Oper. atic Airs Obnoxious.

Washington, Sept. 1 .- The official confirmation of the appointment of Cardinal Steinhuber as prefect in Rome of the congregation of the Index was received here yesterday. news is expected to cause a lively comment in clerical circles. It is understood that Cardinal Steinhuber ranks among the most radical members of the cardinalate at the vatican. He has decided views on the adoption of a better standard of church music than now prevails in this country.

With his appointment as head of this congregation will have direct control of the St. Cecelia society and other organizations looking to the betterment of church music in the United States, The operatic airs which are now generally sung by the choirs here are obnox. ious, it is said, to the spirit of the Catholic church, which, for centuries, has recognized no other form of ecclesiastical music than the Gregorian chant. For certain reasons, however. greater latitude has been given to American choirs than to those of any other country, but now the authorities at Rome are determined to support vocieties like that of St. Cecilia, whose purpose is gradually to eliminate what is considered baneful music. Cardinal Steinhuber supported Mgr.

Schroder in his controversy with the Catholic university trustees in Washington after being deposed from office.

TELLS WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD SUCCEED.

Present Prosperity Should Be Retained. Election of Bryan Would Mean a Repetition of the Evils Which Followed Harrison's Defeat.

Hon. Charles Foster, former governor of Ohio and secretary of the treasury under President Harrison, has in the Toledo Blade an article on the reasons why the Republican party should succeed at the November elections. He says:

It need not take many words to point out the reasons why the Republican sparty should be successful in the coming national election. The whole argument is contained in the following, from an old Dutchman. He said to me: "Times is goot. Every man gets work what wants him. 16 to 1 is a tamned humbug. This time I votes for McKinley." I could appropriately stop

The defeat of the Republican party will be followed by a repetition of what followed the defeat of Harrison in 1892. It is not safe to rely upon the United States senate to prevent revenue and financial legislation of a "free trade" and "16 to 1" order. If Bryan is elected, the power will come with it to repeal all the wise legislation of the past four years -the legislation that has lifted the country from the despondency and business depression of '93 to the height of realized hopes and business prosperity in 1899. Even without legislation, silver being the legal tender for all debts, public or private, Bryan would have the power to pay the interest and principal of our national debt in silver. It is generally conceded that in his position upon the silver question he is honest. If this be true, the man who dictated to his party upon this question at Kansas City, when he was in a minority of 2 to 1, will not hesitate to thus pay the interest and principal of the government bonds. The business interests of the country, the laboring men's interests, the manufacturers, the financial interests, and a bealthy revenue, all require Republican success.

Even if "free trade" is not a heresy, and "16 to 1" not a delusion, and were in fact good things, their adoption would for years disarrange existing relations, so that it would result in disaster fully as complete and destructive as that witnessed in '93, after the last Democratic success; but both being a heresy and a delusion, their adoption would bring about a disaster more complete than the counw has ever witnessed.

The voters of '92 did not heed the warning given them of what Democratic success and the adoption of Democratic principles would accomplish. They suffered so enormously for their folly that I can not believe they are willing to repeat it. A handful of chronic kickers of the Atkinson, Schurz and Beatty stripe, men who are always against the party to which they belong, pretend to see that the policy of President McKinley toward the Philippines is tending to imperlalism. As the Democratic party is hout principles, and is always Ottehing at straws, it catches at this imperialistic straw and declares it to be the paramount issue of the cam-six-column speech wholly devoted to 2; 1 Cor. vi, 19, 20; ix, 16, 17; x, 31; Col. this subject, end entirely ignoring 16 to 1 and all other subjects issue.

Bryan, Beatty and all of them propose an American Protectorate for the Philippines. When they do that they give their whole case away, and are as near imperialism as they charge the Republican party to be. The Republican party wisely proposes to give the Filipinos all the liberty they can enjoy, and to act as their tutor in free government, and whenever they are able to govern themselves, no one will be in the way of their having it to the funest extent of their capacity and ability to conduct governmental affairs. The voters will not be fooled by these chronic malcontents.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 9-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.—Our simple duty.—Luke xvii, 7-10.

THE PARABLE. The parable of the plowing servant is not a very familiar one. In some books on the parables of Christ it is not to be found at all. Yet it teaches Christians a very important lesson and warns them against a very grave danger, peculiar to Christians only. If you have a servant, says Christ, who has been plowing or feeding cattle, doing his work faithfully, when he comes in from the field you do not say, "Sit down to meat," but "Make ready wherewith I may sup, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink." So likewise Christ adds when we have done all that we have been commanded, we shall be unprofitable servants, having done simply our duty.

THE INTERPRETATION. What does this parable of the plowing servant mean? It must be studied in the light of its surroundings, and the one lesson that it is intended to teach must not be lost sight of, nor must it be taken to tech too much. Christ's disciples have asked for an increase of faith. Christ replies that a little real faith would accomplish what seemed to them impossible, that faith as a grain of mustard seed would remove trees and plant them in the sea. Then follows this parable, and what for but to warn the disciples against the danger of being unduly proud of what they could do as a result of their faith and of thinking that in what they did there was personal credit and merit. Suppose they did do great things? Would merit be attached to it? No. Because in all they might do they were only doing what was their duty and doing it by the power of God Himself.

A servant does his day's work faithfully. He comes in from the field. Does the master say, "You've done well; sit down and eat?" No. The servant had but done his duty. The master owned him. There was still work for him to do, other duties to be performed - the master's meat must first be prepared. Thus Christ warned the disciples against attaching merit to their personal works. They were God's servants. Their service belonged to Him as a result of ownership. The fulfilling of it in this relation would give them no claim to merit. Simple duty demanded it of them, and after all was done no man could claim to be more than an unprofitable servant. their energies in co-operation with the Let us remember that this is only one phase of our relation to God. We are His sons as well as His servants, and in this relation God is love and not generation of purity and power. simply just.

THE APPLICATION. An emphasis needs to be placed upon duty in religion. There is too much of a tendency today to emphasize sentiment and personal inclination. There are too many who serve God when they feel like it and neglect it when they feel otherwise. Duty has its place, and an important place. We are God's and should serve God as a result of this twnership and not for rewards that may be attached to the performance of duty. Feelings change; duty is unchangeable. Christianity is opposed to natural personal inclinations, and hence we cannot give them the supreme place in our religion. Men ought to obey God, though obedience may conflict with personal inclination, and if by God's grace we do accomplish something let us not be puffed up, for, do what we may, we only do our duty.

THE PRAYER MEETING. Have the parable explained and applied, followed by an open voluntary

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 2, "Seek Souls-Text, Luke xv, 1-10.

"This man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

Nothing in the life of Jesus was more startling and revolutionary of the notions of the times than His treatment of the people who were not counted as religious. "Then drew near unto Him all the publicans and sinners to hear Him" shows Him possessed of an attractive power of personality such as no other reformer, however eloquent, ever had. Nowhere do we read of the multitudes of the common people offering any opposition to Him unless first stirred up by the professedly good leaders of religion. The publicans were cordially hated as being for purposes of gain in league with the foreign conquerors and political masters of the nation. Oftentimes they were probably extortionate in their demands and violent in their methods of collecting the taxes. It is quite likely that as a class they were socially inferior and Fiorally of low type. They are usually coupled, as in this instance, with sinners. These two classes were the openly nonreligious people of the times. They were the most needy of spiritual help, and no effort was made to reform them by those who made most profession of piety. One good thing remained true of them in all the evils of their occupation-they made no pretense of goodness, of which they were destitute. There was no sham with them. They were openly in life what they were and concealed nothing under a cloak of false profession of sanctity. If they defrauded any man, it was not under the disguise of pious duty and godly helpfulness. If they overreached any one, they did not make their evil doubly hateful by long prayers and hypocritical ejaculations. They were not given to cant.

Such people need the gospel and are much more easily reached by it than those who appear to be more righteous, but who are righteous only in appearance. A publican is an easier man to reach with truth and appeals of duty than a self satisfied Pharisee.

Jesus shows the real heart of all truth in seeking those who are most needy of His helpfulness. He reverses all false estimates of the worth of external forms of religion and centers all value in the intention and soul desires. Mechanical motion and mere ceremony belong to the realm of the unfree, but whatever is of the nature of compulsion, whatever is forced and necessitated, loses value in the sphere of the free spirit of man. Oblige a child to repeat a prayer, and as a prayer it is worthless. It may be useful, perhaps. as a lesson of obedience, but not as a religious expression of soul desire.

The publican and sinner are ignorant of their real nature and needs and, not as the Pharisee, openly defiant of known right. Jesus awakens in the evil ones the dormant desires and calls into active exertion the powers of good. He seeks those lost to right and saves them by rousing them to put forth spirit of holiness. Sinners recognize in Him a Saviour and, penitently forsaking their sins. follow Him in the re-

So the followers of the Christ are called not so much to a routine and ritual of worship as to the active exertion of godliness in seeking and saving

The Cripple

Who is crippled by accident or deformity hardly understands the meaning of the word "crippled" as compared with the victim of rheumatism. He is not only bent and twisted, but also racked with pain so cruel that he envies the cripple who stumps along on a wooden leg, whistling as he goes. Rheumatism is known to-day as a blood disease. It can only be cured through the blood.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 2, "Seek Souls-Text, Luke xv, 1-10.

"This man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

Nothing in the life of Jesus was more startling and revolutionary of the notions of the times than His treatment of the people who were not counted as religious. "Then drew near unto Him all the publicans and sinners to hear Him" shows Him possessed of an attractive power of personality such as no other reformer, however eloquent, ever had. Nowhere do we read of the multitudes of the common people offering any opposition to Him unless first stirred up by the professedly good leaders of religion. The publicans were cordially hated as being for purposes of gain in league with the foreign conquerors and political masters of the nation. Oftentimes they were probably extortionate in their demands and violent in their methods of collecting the taxes. It is quite likely that as a class they were socially inferior and Fiorally of low type. They are usually coupled, as in this instance, with sinners. These two classes were the openly nonreligious people of the times. They were the most needy of spiritual help, and no effort was made to reform them by those who made most profession of piety. One good thing remained true of them in all the evils of their occupation-they made no pretense of goodness, of which they were destitute. There was no sham with them. They were openly in life what they were and concealed nothing under a cloak of false profession of sanctity. If they defrauded any man, it was not under the disguise of pious duty and godly helpfulness. If they overreached any one, they did not make their evil doubly hateful by long prayers and hypocritical ejaculations. They were not given to cant.

Such people need the gospel and are much more easily reached by it than those who appear to be more righteous. but who are righteous only in appearance. A publican is an easier man to reach with truth and appeals of duty than a self safisfied Pharisee.

Jesus shows the real heart of all truth in seeking those who are most needy of His helpfulness. He reverses all false estimates of the worth of external forms of religion and centers all value in the intention and soul desires. Mechanical motion and mere ceremony belong to the realm of the unfree, but whatever is of the nature of compulsion, whatever is forced and necessitated, loses value in the sphere of the free spirit of man. TELLS WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD SUCCEED.

Present Prosperity Should Be Retained. Election of Eryan Would Mean a Repetition of the Evils Which Followed Harrison's Defeat.

Hon. Charles Foster, former goverpor of Ohio and secretary of the treasmy under President Harrison, has in the Toledo Blade an article on the reasons why the Republican party should succeed at the November elections. He says:

It need not take many words to point out the reasons why the Republican party should be successful in the coming national election. The whole argument is contained in the following, from an old Dutchman. He said to me: "Times is goot. Every man gets work what wants him. 16 to 1 is a tamned humbug. This time I votes for McKinley." I could appropriately stop

The defeat of the Republican party will be followed by a repetition of what followed the defeat of Harrison in 1892. It is not safe to rely upon the United States senate to prevent revenue and financial legislation of a "free trade" and "16 to 1" order. If Bryan is elected, the power will come with it to repeal all the wise legislation of the past four years -the legislation that has lifted the country from the despondency and business depression of '93 to the height of realized hopes and business prosperity in 1899. Even without legislation, silver being the legal tender for all debts, public or private, Bryan would have the power to pay the interest and principal of our national debt in silver. It is generally conceded that in his position upon the silver question he is honest. If this be true, the man who dictated to his party upon this question at Kansas City, when he was in a minority of 2 to 1, will not hesitate to thus pay the interest and principal of the government bonds. The business interests of the country, the laboring men's interests, the manufacturers, the financial interests, and a bealthy revenue, all require Republican success.

Even if "free trade" is not a heresy, and "16 to 1" not a delusion, and were in fact good things, their adoption would for years disarrange existing relations, so that it would result in disaster fully as complete and destructive as that witnessed in '93, after the last Democratic success; but both being a heresy and a delusion, their adoption would bring about a disaster more complete than the coun-has ever witnessed. The voters of '92 did not heed the warning given them of what Democratic success and the adoption of Democratic principles would accomplish. They suffered so enormously for their folly that I can not believe they are willing to repeat it. A handful of chronic kickers of the Atkinson, Schurz and Beatty stripe, men who are always against the party to which they belong, pretend to see that the policy of President McKinley toward the Philippines is tending to imperlalism. As the Democratic party is hout principles, and is always Ottohing at straws, it catches at this imperialistic straw and declares it to be the paramount issue of the cambaign, and candidate Bryan makes 2 six-column speech wholly devoted to this subject, end entirely ignoring 16 to 1 and all other subjects issue.

Bryan, Beatty and all of them propose an American Protectorate for the Philippines. When they do that they give their whole case away, and are as near imperialism as they charge the Republican party to be. The Republican party wisely proposes to give the Filipinos all the liberty they can enjoy, and to act as their tutor in free government, and whenever they are able to govern themselves, no one will be in the way of their having it to the tunest extent of their capacity and ability to conduct governmental affairs. The voters will not be fooled by these chronic malcontents.

CHARLES FOSTER.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept, 9-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.—Our simple duty.—Luke xvii, 7-10.

THE PARABLE. The parable of the plowing servant is not a very familiar one. In some books on the parables of Christ it is not to be found at all. Yet it teaches Christians a very important lesson and warns them against a very grave danger, peculiar to Christians only. If you have a servant, says Christ, who has been plowing or feeding cattle, doing his work faithfully, when he comes in from the field you do not say, "Sit down to meat," but "Make ready wherewith I may sup, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink." So likewise Christ adds when we have done all that we have been commanded, we shall be unprofitable servants, having done simply our duty.

THE INTERPRETATION. What does this parable of the plowing servant mean? It must be studied in the light of its surroundings, and the one lesson that it is intended to teach must not be lost sight of, nor must it be taken to tech too much. Christ's disciples have asked for an increase of faith. Christ replies that a little real faith would accomplish what seemed to them impossible, that faith as a grain of mustard seed would remove trees and plant them in the sea. Then follows this parable, and what for but to warn the disciples against the danger of being unduly proud of what they could do as a result of their faith and of thinking that in what they did there was personal credit and merit. Suppose they did do great things? Would merit be attached to it? No. Because in all they might do they were only doing what was their duty and doing it by the power of God Himself.

There was still work for him to do, other duties to be performed - the master's meat must first be prepared. Thus Christ warned the disciples against attaching merit to their personal works. They were God's servants. Their service belonged to Him as a result of ownership. The fulfilling of it in this relation would give them no claim to merit. We are | Him a Saviour and, penitently forsak-His sons as well as His servants, and ing their sins. follow Him in the rein this relation God is love and not generation of purity and power. simply just.

THE APPLICATION. An emphasis needs to be placed upon duty in religion. There is too much of a tendency today to emphasize sentiment and personal inclination. There are too many who serve God when they feel like it and neglect it when they feel otherwise. Duty has its place, and an important place. We are God's and should serve God as a result of this twnership and not for rewards that may be attached to the performance of duty. Feelings change; duty is unchangeable. #### What a Trade Paper Thinks of the Situation East and West.

This is how the Crockery and Glass Journal looks at the wage conditions in East Liverpool and Trenton:

The new scale in the west seems to it is moving without much friction night. and with apparent satisfaction on the part of manufacturers and workmen. The western operatives seem to have the intelligence, the honesty, the honor and the loyalty to their Brotherhood to recognize the general good to the whole number and abide by their own rothy, of Trenton, N. J., arrived in our agreements.

In Trenton.

has given away for the present to a great activity in the local plants, made necessary by the great volume of business that is being done. No presidential year in the history of the pottery industry here has seen such a good trade, and the outlook is that all hands will be kept going full blast till the holiday season rolls around.

Just what will become of the scale question eventually is problematical. There are those among both the manufacturers and men who lean to the belief that the scale will ultimately go into effect in Trenton. They argue CHIEF that it is quite necessary to the future of the trade here.

KILLED A MAD DOG

It Frightened a Lot of People In the Lower Part of Town.

THREE SHOTS WERE NECESSARY

A mad dog broke loose in the lower part of town last evening, and for a time there was quite an excitement.

The dog was the property of Mrs. Dora Hall, of Second street, and when first noticed it was acting in a strange manner, running about and snapping at any one who chanced to pass. Chief Thompson was notified and repaired to the scene prepared to make way with the animal. The first time an attempt was made to shoot the dog the chief missed his aim, as the canine was running, and the shot only served to anger him. He made at the officer who had no desire for a hand to hand encounter so retired. He killed the animal on Market street a short time afterward.

Mayor Davidson has issued an order notifying all people who are in the habit of leaving wagons and other obstructions standing in the street, that the practice will not be tolerated on next Monday. The order will be enforced to the letter. Chief Thompson is busy today notifying the parties what is expected of them.

The Kinsey Plumbing company were last night granted the contract for heating the new Carnegie library.

Directors Thompson, Travis, Ikirt, Peach and Architect Scott were present, and after an inspection of the plans of the different bidders, selected the apparatus handled here by the Kinsey company.

The heater is manufactured by the Novelty Iron company, of Canton, and is a hot water system.

Several out-of-town bidders entered the competition, prominent among them being McGinnis & Smithh, of Pittsburg. The Eagle Hardware company was the only other local concern who made a bid on the work.

BOTH SIDES OF POLITICS.

Negro Preacher Thinks That's the Way to Solve Lynching Problem.

Alexandria, Va., Sept. 1.-The Lott Avery Baptist missionary convention adjourned to meet in Philadelphia next year. The race question was the chief subject of discussion.

Rev. Dr. Spiller, of Hampton, Va., said that all over the country there was an effort by both parties to drive the negro out of politics. He thought the negroes ought to get on both sides of politics. He was willing to vote for the party that would stop the lynching of negroes and let them be tried and executed by law.

MONEY STILL POURING

The Greatest Famine on Record. Men and Women Coming to the Rescue.

TEN MILLIONS ARE DESTITUTE

Despite the exciting march of events in China, public interest in America is still focussed on India and the terrible famine there raging. Money for the relief of the starving millions is still pouring into the treasuries of the various relief committees. The Christian Herald, Bible House, New York, which is raising the largest fund of all for the distressed people, makes the gratifying report that all America, with unabating generosity, is still working for the fund, gathering money from every possible source. Every dollar sent in is promptly acknowledged in the pages of the Christian Herald.

Gilson Willets, the author and journalist, recently returned from a journey through the famine stricken region, was seen yesterday by a representative of this paper. Said he:

"The famine is above all a big famine. You can search all the books in the British museum and you wont find record of a bigger famine. The breadless area covers 350,000 square miles, which is one-third of all India, or as big as all Canada. In this area are 50,000,000 people, onesixth of the entire population of India, a number equal to our entire whole well-fed family east of the Mississippi. Ten millions are entirely destitute, and of these the government is taking care of 6,500,000 on relief works and in poor houses.

"It is as if every man, woman and child in New York state depended tion and on the university campus and tus thrived pluckily, and some of the of the remaining 3,000,000 are cared gayly. for by missionaries and private charity.

"I described these camps and poor houses fully in my letters to your paper from India, described in detail the spectacle of over six million people eating the two meals a day supplied by the government. There are other and many interesting things in connection with these camps, however. For instance, the starving people have to walk from 10 to 50 miles allow people who live in a certain village for instance, to enter the camp adjoining that village. If they are willing to walk a number of miles to get relief they are pretty certain to be genuine sufferers, and we thus get a minimum of imposters.

"In the relief camps people are seldom arrested. They are too busy or too tired to do wrong. Are the people ronest among themselves? Yes; for obvious reasons. They have nothing to steal from one another.

"In case of any wrong doing, however, no corporal punishment is inflicted upon the culprits. If such culprits are well enough they are dismissed. How do the workers entertain themselves on holidays and

A NEW FACTORY

To Be Established in This Vicinity for the Manufacture of Automobiles.

The old car shops at Minerva that have stood idle for so many years are being torn down and shipped away. The Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad company has purchased the ground and will put in several tracks there and make a yard at that place. The citizens were loth to see the shops go, but there is a new movement on foot which promises to give quite a boom to the town.

Will Pennock, who was one of the proprietors of the car shops, has completed a model of an automobile which passed a very successful test. He is now engaged in building another at the "A. B. C." machine shops, and it is said that he and his partner, Arthur Hostetter, are soon to begin the erection of a fine new building for the purpose of manufacturing automobiles.

The citizens are all excited over the project and will assist in every way possible.

FOR MOTHERS.

The period immediately following child-birth is fraught with many dangers. The strength has been used in the painful ordeal through which the mother has passed and she finds herself helpless and weakened. Many mothers, like Mrs. Ford, date the beginning of their illness from the birth of their child. Indeed the frequent spectacle of a healthy young woman becoming a chronic invalid after motherhood is one of the tragedies of life. All this is unnecessary, when Wine of Cardui is obtainable. It rehabilitates the shattered nervous system, strengthens the organs and ligaments, and re-establishes a healthy, natural condition, saving years of chronic sickness and suffering. Wine of Cardui taken just before confinement will render the ordeal comparatively painless. It will re-enforce and strengthen the organs for their work. For every trying crisis in a woman's life, Wine of Cardui is the medicine to take. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui and take no substitute. If one is offered send $1.00 for a bottle to the Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga,

It has become a stench in the nostrils of every clean and good citizen. The very word "saloon" bears with it the signficance of debauchery, dishonor, degradation, drunkenness, depravity, vileness, vice and crime of every description. The men engaged in these dens of iniquity are recognizing the fact that the word "saloon" bears shame and sorrow with it, and they are urging the adoption of the name "liquor store," and the dropping of the word "saloon." Please God, the day will come when the manufacture and sale of accursed intoxicants in this great nation will be declared illegal and unlawful, and the men who are now coining money out of the tears and means of widows and children will find no necessity of coining a new word for the hellish business in which they are engaged.

OUR VETERANS.

the Grand Army veterans will cease mark name and address of the voters to march at their annual encampments. down and interview them. Say, fel-They can meet as a body for years lows, you'd have been astonished to to come, hold their camp fires, have with them their wives, children, grand children and other relatives, listen to addresses, indulge in good living and have a good time generally; but the long and wearisome marches must cease. One G. A. R. comrade dropped dead in line at Chicago; another comrade was taken very seriously ill and was compelled to leave the ranks and eventually had to be carried to his quarters. Very many men who marched over the entire route will suffer in consequence. One plucky veteran, with but one leg, made the complete route on crutches. It was very nervy on his part; but it was also very foolish, as he could have rode in a conveyance if he had so desired, and been made cosy and comfortable.

WONDERFUL CHANGES.

Time works wonders. A few years person should object to this. If you since, General Daniel E. Sickles was

General Joe Wheeler was doing equally valiant and heroic service for the confederacy; the two born soldiers were doing all they could possibly to annihilate and wipe from the face of the earth their common foe. On Tuesday last, at the Palmer House, Chicago, the writer had the pleasure of an introduction and a hand shake with General Sickles, and received as hearty a welcome as if he had worn the star of a brigadier general. A moment later, a mutual friend and acquaintance introduced the writer to General Joe Wheeler, and received from the doughty little warrior a genial, hearty welcome, with a hand clasp which seemed to say that the welcome given was from the heart as well as from the lips, and that it was made more hearty than usual in the fact of our being at Manila, as the friend in introducing us so informed the general. A moment later, the federal and confederate officers were chatting together like bosom friends, and this brought the thought up that time indeed works wonderful changes. General Joe Wheeler is a man well worth knowing and studying; light of build, small of stature, urbane and courteous to a marked degree, he presents the appearance of a successful commercial traveler or a retail business man. He would be one of the last men in the world that the average man would pick out as a warrior bold or one of heroic mould; and yet, like "Bobs" Roberts, the great English commander, he is surely every inch a "THAT'S THE TALK."

of the union and waging hot and

bloody war against the confederacy.

He was one of a party of a crowded car of tourists, returning from the G. A. R. encampment at Chicago. He is a good talker, bright and breezy and chuck full of personal magnetism, and his talk attracted general attention. He wound up his talk to the G. A. R. boys as follows:

"Say, fellows, I'm a convert. I have seen the error of my way. I have been taught a lasting lesson. I'll not shirk or loaf any more. I'll be on deck when the ship comes in. I'm for McKinley and the present administration. The times are good enough for me and good enough for any man of business or common horse sense. I don't want to take any chances in a change, especially such a change as Billy Bryan and his crew of theorists offer us; I've been satisfied that we'll win a big victory in our state, say about 50,000 or 60,00 majority, and I'd about concluded it wasn't worth my while to lose a half day and go to the polis, as McKinley was sure of all our state electors. But I listened to a brainy and astute talker the other day and he convinced me that it was my bounden duty not only to vote myself, but to see that every McKinley voter in our neck of woods should be at the polls and cast his ballot, The day is fast approaching when and that I ought to go to work and find the number of those chums of mine who had been thinking and acting same as I had. But I stirred 'em up to the marrow bones, and don't you forget it; and they'll not only vote themselves, but I've made 'em missionaries, and each blessed man is now out hot foot after converts. It's the only way to do business, political or otherwise, and don't you forget it. If you want to win, and win good, you've got to hustle from away back and let the other side do the loafin'." The boys broke loose when the speaker ceased, and gave him three rousing cheers and a royal tiger; and when the echo died away a fellow at the south end of the car, with a voice like that of a full fledged African lion, roared out:

"That's the talk. Let her went for three more and a growler, boys." And they "let her went."

SOUTH SIDE.

Lacked the Nerve.

An old bachelor on the Southside made an engagement to take a fair maid to the ice cream parlor the other night, but when the time came his heart failed him and he did not appear. Thinking about it later he concluded Officer Hamilton removed the cow. It he should call and make some sort of an apology, so he made an engagement to call, and when he got there he found she had gone to Wellsville with a handsomer man.

UNITED STATES LEADS september 9, 1898, when she took the reins of power from the hands of the emperor.

A Succession of Very Clever Diplomratic Moves.

AWAITING RESPONSE TO OUR NOTE.

Li Hung Chang's Eligibility to Negotiate Still an Open Question-It Is Thought the Imperial Rulers of China Will

Washington, Sept. 1.-The Russian note relative to the withdrawal of Russia from China and the United States' response thereto were made public the cabinet had fully considered the expediency of so doing. The correspondence is unique in the history of diplomatic exchange. It may be said to illustrate a clever move by which the United States government has again assumed the lead in prescribing the policy of the powers respecting the Chinese trouble. This was accomplished by the state department's availing itself of the Russian note to address to the powers an inquidy as can scarcely be avoided.

Various meanings may be placed upon the statements of the two principals to this correspondence. Thus, on the one hand, it may be noted that while Russia announces a purpose to withdraw her troops from China, still, as to the occupying force at Niu Chang, a condition is attached that almost negatives the proposition as to that point. Respecting our own attitude, It appears that, while believing the best course to pursue is to remain at Peking, our government is still willing Perhaps this means to withdraw. that if there is to be separate action by the powers in China, the United States proposes to deal with the situation with a free hand.

Our Proposition to Withdraw.

It may be noted, in connection with our withdrawal statement that, whereas Russia proposed to withdraw from China, our offer is to withdraw only from Peking. A significant fact in this connection is that General Chaffee, who is well advised of the situation, having several days ago been directed to prepare for just such an emergency as that precipitated by the Russian action, continues his preparations for wintering the American troops in China, Indeed, unless the men are affoat and out of the Pei Ho within the next six weeks, they are likely to remain in China perforce, being ice-

General Chaffee was further advised Friday of the developments in the situation, a compendious statement of the points in the Russo-American correspondence being cabled to him for his guidance. As bearing further on the prospects of the future, it may be noted the war department officials tate that the government has not considered the question of the evacuation of China.

Only Two Answers.

It scarcely is expected that even with the aid of the cables a complete accord can be reached upon this last proposition immediately. Up to the close of the official day only two communications had been received in consequence of our last note. One was from the the British foreign office, through the American embassy, stating that Lord Salisbury was absent from London, and merely promising consideration for the note. The German response was through Mr. Jackson, and was equally inconclusive, indicating a wish on the part of the German government for time to consider the proposition.

The officials here say that they are satisfied that Japan, at least, is fully in accord with our objects, as set out in the note, and rather expected an early answer from the government of of that country. France has not been beard from on this point, her last communication relating entirely to the matter of Li Hung Chang's status.

The full text of the French government's answer to Li Hung Chang's peace proposals of Aug. 19 and 21 has just been received here. It proves to be almost identical in language with the reply of the American government, which laid down as a preliminary to peace overtures that security in the Chinese capital and responsible government authority be established.

It has developed in the course of careful consideration which officials have given to Li Hung Chang's credentials, that they were issued by the empress dowager, and not by the emperor, Kwang Tsu. This may have september 9, 1898, when she took the

The Return of Prince Ching.

It involves also the issues between the empress downger, who is anti-foreign, and the emperor, who is pro-foreign. Still a further consideration is the Russian sympathies entertained by the empress dowager, as against the British sympathies held by the emperor. Thus far, however, there has been no questioning of the credentials on any of the personal grounds mentioned, although they are forcible in shaping the action of the several

Although the exact whereabouts of Soon Return and Assume Their Duties. Li Hung Chang continue to be in doubt it is the understanding of diplomatic officials that he is now in continuous communication with the imperial household, and thus is enabled to convey to them the prospect of a return to the Chinese capital. The expected Friday by the state department, after return of Prince Ching to Peking is said to be a result of this communication between Earl Li and the imperial family, and to be the initial move of responsible authorities toward the cap-

There is reason to believe also that Earl Li is now in frequent telegraphic eorrespondence with European capitals, although Washington has not received a word from him since Aug. 21, the date of the last appeal for peace. Some significance is attached remarks, "Count von Waldersee was to this, as indicating that Earl Li to their policies, an answer to which failing to get from Washington an acceptance of his overtures, turned to Europe, and more particularly to Rus-

It was stated Friday, as an additional reason for American acceptance of Li Hung Chang, that his confidential settlement. Russia has taken the wind secretary and adviser is an American, out of that officer's sails, and is now Mr.. Pethick, formerly of the American consular service at Tien Tsin. Mr. Pethick is known to have great influence with the viceroy, and, among the officials here, he is regarded as a man of exceptional ability and scrupulous integrity.

ELEVEN CASES OF BUBONIC PLAGUE.

All Vessels From Glasgow to Stay Ir Quarantine Twelve Days.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The following cablegram was received by the marine hospital service:

"Glasgow, Aug. 31.-Local board of health declares Glasgow infected with plague. Eleven cases and one suspicious case in the hospital today."

New York, Sept. 1.-Dr. A. H. Doty, health officer of the port of New York, said that hereafter all vessels from Glasgow to this port would be detained at Quarantine for a period of 12 days from their embarkation. "This length of time," said Dr. Dety, "is the maximum period of incubation. As there are only two passenger lines plying between this port and Glasgow the work will be simplified.

Denmark has also quarantined against Glasgow.

POWERS ARE AT SEA

The Russo-American Move a Great Mystery to Them.

TSI TSI KAR CAPTURED BY RUSSIA.

Count Von Buelow Thinks the Situation Is Grave-Law and Order Being Restored In Peking - Return of Prince Ching Is Regarded as a Good Omen.

London, Sept. 1.-In the absence of further news from China the papers native newspapers on the ground that are again filled with discussions of the Russo-American proposals, which, so far as may be gathered from the rep- peace. resentations of opinions in the various European capitals, are calculated to subject the unity of the allies to an exceedingly severe and dangerous test.

In Germany especially these proposals are so diametrically opposed to Emperor William's policy that they have produced something like consternation. As The Daily News editorially assuredly not sent to assist in restoring the empress dowager."

It is recognized on all sides that Germany's decision is the pivot of the matter.. Emperor William intended by dispatching Count von Waldersee to have the master hand in the Chinese posing as the friend and protector of Vienna specials show that the Russo-American proposals have caused extreme annoyance there. It is believed that Austria-Hungary will follow in Germany's steps, but it is recognized in both Berlin and Vienna that the withdrawal of the United states and Russia from Peking would leave the other powers little option but to follow.

London, Sept. 1.—General Rennekampf, according to the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Mail, captured Tsi Tsi Kar August 29. As he advanced the Chinese surrendered by hundreds.

The dispatch says that Governor General Grodekoff will soon remove the seat of the Amur government from Khabarovsk to Tsi Tsi Kar and will later transfer it to Charbin.

GERMAN GOVERMENT EMBARRASSED.

Von Bueelow Cannot Account For the Russo-American Understanding.

Berlin, Sept. 1.-The German government is considerably embarrassed by the joint proposition of the United States and Russia to withdraw from Peking and to recognize Li Hung at Brooklyn. Chang as an intermediary. It was wholly unexpected here that Russia would join the United States in such a step. Count von Buelow, the for-Friday: John W. Worrell, dead, West eign minister, considers the new situation thus created so important as to engost; Katoll and Wood. Umpire, Dwyer. compel him to abandon trip he was about to take.

Last evening the semi-official press expresses the views of the government in cautiousness. A foreign office official made the following statement on

"Germany has not yet answered Russia's request to withdraw from Peking. The other powers do not regard the military situation there as precarious. As far as Li Hung Chang is concerned, Germany is ready to acknewledge him as China's representative in peace negotiations if he show himself properly accredited; but as to this feature of the case nothing is as yet known here.

LAWLESS ELEMENT OVERAWED.

Prince Ching's Return to Peking-Germany May Start a Holy War.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The most gratifying features of the Chinese situation are the announcement by Minispected to return to Peking and the apparent determination of Rusia to secure, if possible, the withdrawal of the allies from that city. The most alarming phase is the indication that the German people feel that they have a mission in China, a duty call to wage a holy war against the Chinese.

Prince Ching's retu!rn to Peking is taken to indicate a healthy reaction in sentiment. Ching is known as a friend of foreigners, and several times before the relief of Peking his death at the hands of the Boxer element was reported. That he can now return in safety means that the lawless element has been overawed, and that under the protection of the allied forces the pro-foreign faction is asserting itself.

IMPROVED CHURCH MUSIC.

Reform In Catholic Church Choirs-Operatic Airs Obnoxious.

Washington, Sept. 1.-The official confirmation of the appointment of Cardinal Steinhuber as prefect in Rome of the congregation of the Index was received here yesterday. news is expected to cause a lively comment in clerical circles. It is understood that Cardinal Steinhuber ranks among the most radical members of the cardinalate at the vatican. He has decided views on the adoption of a better standard of church music than now prevails in this country.

With his appointment as head of this congregation will have direct control of the St. Cecelia society and other organizations looking to the betterment of church music in the United States, The operatic airs which are now gener. ally sung by the choirs here are obnox. ious, it is said, to the spirit of the Catholic church, which, for centuries, has recognized no other form of ecclesiastical music than the Gregorian chant. For certain reasons, however, greater latitude has been given to American choirs than to those of any other country, but now the authorities at Rome are determined to support vocieties like that of St. Cecilia, whose purpose is gradually to eliminate what is considered baneful music.

Cardinal Steinhuber supported Mgr. Schroder in his controversy with the Catholic university trustees in Washington after being deposed from office.

TELLS WHY THE REPUBLICAN PARTY SHOULD SUCCEED.

Present Prosperity Should Be Retained. Election of Bryan Would Mean a Repetition of the Evils Which Followed Harrison's Defeat.

Hon. Charles Foster, former governor of Ohio and secretary of the treasury under President Harrison, has in the Toledo Blade an article on the reasons why the Republican party should succeed at the November elections. He says:

It need not take many words to point out the reasons why the Republican marty should be successful in the coming national election. The whole argument is contained in the following, from an old Dutchman. He said to me: "Times is goot. Every man gets work what wants him. 16 to 1 is a tamned humbug. This time I votes for McKinley." I could appropriately stop

The defeat of the Republican party will be followed by a repetition of what followed the defeat of Harrison in 1892. It is not safe to rely upon the United States senate to prevent revenue and financial legislation of a "free trade" and "16 to 1" order. If Bryan is elected, the power will come with it to repeal all the wise legislation of the past four years -the legislation that has lifted the country from the despondency and business depression of '93 to the height of realized hopes and business prosperity in 1899. Even without legislation, silver being the legal tender for all debts, public or private, Bryan would have the power to pay the interest and principal of our national debt in silver. It is generally conceded that in his position upon the silver question he is honest. If this be true, the man who dictated to his party upon this question at Kansas City, when he was in a minority of 2 to 1, will not hesitate to thus pay the interest and principal of the government bonds. The business interests of the country, the laboring men's interests, the manufacturers, the financial interests, and a bealthy revenue, all require Republican success.

Even if "free trade" is not a heresy, and "16 to 1" not a delusion, and were in fact good things, their adoption would for years disarrange existing relations, so that it would result in disaster fully as complete and destructive as that witnessed in '93, after the last Democratic success; but both being a heresy and a delusion, their adoption would bring about a disaster more complete than the counw has ever witnessed.

The voters of '92 did not heed the warning given them of what Democratic success and the adoption of Democratic principles would accomplish. They suffered so enormously for their folly that I can not believe they are willing to repeat it. A handful of chronic kickers of the Atkinson, Schurz and Beatty stripe, men who are always against the party to which they belong, pretend to see that the policy of President McKinley toward the Philippines is tending to imperlalism. As the Democratic party is hout principles, and is always Outching at straws, it catches at this imperialistic straw and declares it to be the paramount issue of the cambaign, and candidate Brvan makes a six-column speech wholly devoted to this subject, end entirely ignoring 16 to 1 and all other subjects issue.

Bryan, Beatty and all of them propose an American Protectorate for the Philippines. When they do that they give their whole case away, and are as near imperialism as they charge the Republican party to be. The Republican party wisely proposes to give the Filipinos all the liberty they can enjoy, and to act as their tutor in free government, and whenever they are able to govern themselves, no one will be in the way of their having it to the funest extent of their capacity and ability to conduct governmental affairs. The voters will not be fooled by these chronic malcontents.

CHARLES FOSTER.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept, 9-Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle. Topic.—Our simple duty.—Luke xvii, 7-10.

THE PARABLE. The parable of the plowing servant is not a very familiar one. In some books on the parables of Christ it is not to be found at all. Yet it teaches Christians a very important lesson and warns them against a very grave danger, peculiar to Christians only. If you have a servant, says Christ, who has been plowing or feeding cattle, doing his work faithfully, when he comes in from the field you do not say, "Sit down to meat," but "Make ready wherewith I may sup, and afterward thou shalt eat and drink." So likewise Christ adds when we have done all that we have been commanded, we shall be unprofitable servants, having done simply our duty.

THE INTERPRETATION. What does this parable of the plowing servant mean? It must be studied in the light of its surroundings, and the one lesson that it is intended to teach must not be lost sight of, nor must it be taken to tach too much. Christ's disciples have asked for an increase of faith. Christ replies that a little real faith would accomplish what seemed to them impossible, that faith as a grain of mustard seed would remove trees and plant them in the sea. Then follows this parable, and what for but to warn the disciples against the danger of being unduly proud of what they could do as a result of their faith and of thinking that in what they did there was personal credit and merit. Suppose they did do great things? Would merit be attached to it? No. Because in all they might do they were only doing what was their duty and doing it by the power of God Himself.

A servant does his day's work faithfully. He comes in from the field. Does the master say, "You've done well; sit down and eat?" No. The servant had but done his duty. The master owned him. There was still work for him to do, other duties to be performed - the master's meat must first be prepared. Thus Christ warned the disciples against attaching merit to their personal works. They were God's servants. Their service belonged as the Pharisee, openly defiant of to Him as a result of ownership. The known right. Jesus awakens in the fulfilling of it in this relation would evil ones the dormant desires and calls give them no claim to merit. Simple into active exertion the powers of good. duty demanded it of them, and after He seeks those lost to right and saves all was done no man could claim to be more than an unprofitable servant. Let us remember that this is only one phase of our relation to God. We are His sons as well as His servants, and ing their sins. follow Him in the rein this relation God is love and not generation of purity and power. simply just.

THE APPLICATION. a tendency today to emphasize senti- the lost. ment and personal inclination. There are too many who serve God when they feel like it and neglect it when they feel otherwise. Duty has its place, and an important place. We are God's and should serve God as a result of this ownership and not for rewards that may be attached to the performance of duty. Feelings change; duty is unchangeable. Christianity is opposed to natural personal inclinations, and hence we cannot give them the supreme place in our religion. Men ought to obey God, though obedience may conflict with personal inclination, and if by God's grace we do accomplish something let us not be puffed up, for, do what we may, we only do our duty.

THE PRAYER MEETING. Have the parable explained and applied, followed by an open voluntary

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning Sept. 2, "Seek Souls-Text, Luke xv, 1-10,

"This man receiveth sinners and eateth with them."

Nothing in the life of Jesus was more startling and revolutionary of the notions of the times than His treatment of the people who were not counted as religious. "Then drew near unto Him all the publicans and sinners to hear Him" shows Him possessed of an attractive power of personality such as no other reformer, however eloquent, ever had. Nowhere do we read of the multitudes of the common people offering any opposition to Him unless first stirred up by the professedly good leaders of religion. The publicans were cordially hated as being for purposes of gain in league with the foreign conquerors and political masters of the nation. Oftentimes they were probably extortionate in their demands and violent in their methods of collecting the taxes. It is quite likely that as a class they were socially inferior and Fiorally of low type. They are usually coupled. as in this instance, with sinners. These two classes were the openly nonreligious people of the times. They were the most needy of spiritual help, and no effort was made to reform them by those who made most profession of piety. One good thing remained true of them in all the evils of their occupation-they made no pretense of goodness, of which they were destitute. There was no sham with them. They were openly in life what they were and concealed nothing under a cloak of false profession of sanctity. If they defrauded any man, it was not under the disguise of pious duty and godly helpfulness. If they overreached any one, they did not make their evil doubly hateful by long prayers and hypocritical ejaculations. They were not given to cant.

Such people need the gospel and are much more easily reached by it than those who appear to be more righteous. but who are righteous only in appearance. A publican is an easier man to reach with truth and appeals of duty than a self satisfied Pharisee.

Jesus shows the real heart of all truth in seeking those who are most needy of His helpfulness. He reverses all false estimates of the worth of external forms of religion and centers all value in the intention and soul desires. Mechanical motion and mere ceremony belong to the realm of the unfree, but whatever is of the nature of compulsion, whatever is forced and necessitated, loses value in the sphere of the free spirit of man. Oblige a child to repeat a prayer, and as a prayer it is worthless. It may be useful, perhaps. as a lesson of obedience, but not as a religious expression of soul desire.

The publican and sinner are ignorant of their real nature and needs and, not them by rousing them to put forth their energies in co-operation with the spirit of holiness. Sinners recognize in Him a Saviour and, penitently forsak-

So the followers of the Christ are called not so much to a routine and An emphasis needs to be placed upon ritual of worship as to the active exerduty in religion. There is too much of tion of godliness in seeking and saving with rheumatism for twelve years, so bad at times I could not leave my bed. I was badly crippled. Tried many doctors, and two of them gave me up to die. None of them did me any good. The pains in my back, hips and legs (and at times in my head), would nearly kill me. My appetite was very bad. Everybody who saw me said I must die. I took five bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and four vials of 'Pellets,' and to-day my health is good, after suffering twelve years with rheumatism."

The Hilltops and East End Grays are playing ball this afternoon at Columbian park. A good game is expected, as the teams are about evenly matched.

The Northsides and Fredericktown base ball teams will cross bats at the latter place Monday afternoon. A good game is expected, as both clubs are in good condition.

There was not an arrest yesterday and the jail is therefore empty. Several parties who are badly wanted by the police are still at large, and a close watch is being kept.

The crew at the bridge has been changed. Tollkeepers Todd and Owen have been replaced by two Pittsburg men, who were selected by Mr. Jutte, who now controls the bridge.

Encouraging reports continue to come in from Salem and Sebring con cerning the proposed excursion Monday, and it is probable a large crowd will take advantage of the low rate.

Frank S. Fox, principal of the Capitol School of Oratory, Columbus, O. was an East Liverpool visitor today. Prof. Fox was in attendance at the teachers' meeting at the Fourth street building this afternoon.

J. H. Breen, railroad police of the Fort Wayne road, who has been very ill at New Cumberland, was in the city yesterday. He will leave next week for Pittsburg, where he will enter a hospital and undergo an opera

Work was started this morning constructing the street car line on West Market street. This will be a great relief to the residents of that thoroughfare, as they can now see an end to the filth and dirt when the work is completed.

A New Boat.

The City of Wheeling was run into Wheeling Friday afternoon from Clarington, W. Va., under her own steam.

The new boat is 169 feet long and 34 feet wide across the beam. She draws 28 inches of water and according to the government papers her tonnageis 308. She was built for the excursion business and is big and roomy. She can accommodate 1,000 excursionists without any trouble. When not in the excursion business she will be run in the Wheeling and Parkersburg trade, making the trips twice a week and going through to Pittsburg once a week.

She has a fine, big, roomy cabin and her upper guards are commodious. As passengers are not allowed in the pilot house, Captain Thomas has had a large glass observatory built upon the roof. It will accommodate 15 or 20 people, who can obtain a fine, unobstructed view on all sides and above. This is something new in the river packets and will be greatly appreciated by the passengers.
